Walker is pictured in the leading role. The pictures purport to show conditions in factory life in the south, especially as they affect children, and a lively fire scene and a collision at sea furnish the thrills. Marjorie Daw. Thomas Meighan and Loyola O'Connor are pictured in the cast.

Travel scenes and comic films are also included in the exhibition.

The Old Naval Hospital. To the Editor of The Star:

In consequence of a lack of school accommodations may I inquire why a accommodations may I inquire why a large government building, containing many rooms, with artistic shrubbery curroundings, occupying an entire square of ground, on Pennsylvania avenue between 9th and 19th streets southeast, formerly occupied as the Naval Hospital, remains idle year after year in charge of a caretaker? To utilize this building for school purposes, civic preetings, clubs, etc., should command it to the municipality. Is it not true that so little attention is paid to the southease section of Washington by government officials that the existence of this fine building has been forgotten?

INVASION OF SKATERS CAUSES A PROTEST

West End Citizens' Association Up in Arms Over Alleged Depredations.

West End citizens particularly those vho reside and have places of business along Pennsylvania avenue between Sth and 21st streets northwest, are up in arms against an invasion of that section by boys on roller skates from other parts of the city. Their protests were formally voiced last night at a nceting of the West End Citizens' Association, which body has decided to take the complaint to the Commiscioners.

tion stated that citizens of that section had been insulted by what they termed 'gangs of hoodlums" from other neighborhoods; that one resident had been assaulted and considerable property damaged. It was stated that the police appeared to be unable to cope with the situation, inasmuch as the boys were on skates and could easily get away after their depredations.

The association decided that the situation was serious enough to warrant the Commissioners being asked for relief.
